A homeowner may receive a federal tax credit of 10% of material costs up to $500 for the addition of GreenFiber insulation to their home. This tax credit applies to qualified energy efficient products purchased and installed between January 1, 2012 and December 31, 2013. The credit is applicable for the 2012 tax year.

Lifetime Limitation: The lifetime limitation on the tax credit reverts to $500 total for the years in which the tax credit has been available (2006, 2007, 2009, 2010 and 2011). Taxpayers who have claimed a 25c tax credit of up to $500 prior to 2012 are not eligible to make a tax credit claim in 2012 or 2013.

A taxpayer is not required to attach this certificate to the return on which the credit is claimed. Income tax regulations require taxpayers to maintain records sufficient to establish the entitlement to any credit claimed. This certification statement and product installation instructions are provided in printable form on the www.greenfiber.com website.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this certification statement and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts are true, correct and complete.
